Building Fund for Grades 1 – 12

In addition to tuition, Building Fund must be paid for each student.

The amount of building fund per student is determined by that student's grade level.

Building Fund to be paid:

Students entering 1st grade through 6th grade ...: $ 500.00

Students entering 7th grade through 12th grade.: $ 400.00

Maximum of $1,200 per family/household regardless of the number of children that family enrolls at Calhoun Academy

All new students entering Grades 1 - 12, including those who attended Kindergarten at Calhoun Academy, will pay a $100 Application Fee. That $100 is the first payment toward the Building Fund for a student.

In addition, students entering grades 1st – 10th will pay an additional $25 per quarter or $100 per year until paid in full.

Students entering 11th grade will pay an additional $37.50 per quarter or $150 per school year for the next two years. In total, $400 will be paid for that student by the end of their senior year at Calhoun Academy.

Students entering 12th grade will pay an additional $75.00 per quarter or $300 during their senior year. In total, $400 will be paid for that student by the end of their senior year.
